How we collect data

1) Information you provide to us

When sending us an email or contacting us via a third-party service (e.g. Twitter, Facebook, Youtube) we use the information you provide to Us for customer service and improving our apps. We do not share this data with outside parties except to the extent necessary to complete your request, e.g. support requests or information about our apps. Please note that we have no influence on how your personal information is collected or used by third-party services like Twitter, Facebook and Youtube, when you use them to interact with us. Please refer to their respective privacy policies for more information on how they handle your privacy.

2) Automatic data collection in the App

Ads:

The App uses ads of industry standard ad providers Admob and Mopub for monetization purposes. Please refer to their respective privacy policies to receive additional information on how your data is used by them (Admob privacy policy, Mopub privacy policy)

In the EEA territory where the GDPR applies, the App uses non-personalized ads. Non-personalized ads use cookies. Outside the EEA territory (U.S and others) the App serves personalized ads, based on cookies and other ad-tracking identifiers, as described in the respective privacy policies of the ad providers. To control how these identifiers are used, including the ability to reset them through your device setting, please check: Apple iOS.

How we share data

We do not sell personal information about our customers. We may share information with the following types of third parties as described in this privacy policy.

- Third Party Vendors: We use third-party providers to carry out services like website and email hosting. Personal information may be stored by these providers for fulfilling the service, for example your email address may be stored by our email provider.
- Sharing and Disclosure of Aggregate Data: We may share data in an aggregated, anonymized or other form which does not enable the recipient of such data to identify you. We share this data with third parties for business purposes, for example industry analysis.
- Sale or Merger: We may share your non-personal and personal information in the event of a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or a portion of our assets. We may also notify you via email or a prominent notice in the App.

We only share your personal information as necessary, such as to complete a transaction or to provide a product or service you have requested or authorized and only with vendors or agents working on our behalf for the purposes described in this privacy policy. In this case, your personal information will be shared with these agents or contractors but only for the purpose of performing services on behalf and under instructions of Us and in accordance with this privacy policy.

Data security, storage and retention

We are committed in protecting the security of your personal information. However, while we take reasonable physical, electronic, and procedural precautions to guard the personal information we collect, no security system is impenetrable. We use appropriate technical and organizational tools based on industry standards to protect your personal information and help prevent information about you from loss, theft, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration and destruction. Furthermore we limit access to personal information to authorized employees and contractors who need to know that information in order to operate, develop or improve our App and related products or services.

Storage: Personal information collected by Us may be stored, processed and transferred in or between your region, in the United States, or in any other country where our partners and service providers are located or maintain facilities.

Retention: We will retain your personal information for as long as we deem it necessary to enable you to use the App, to comply with applicable laws, resolve disputes with any parties and otherwise as necessary to allow us to conduct our business. All personal information we retain will be subject to this privacy policy. If you have a question about a specific retention period for certain types of personal information we process about you, please send an email.

Data accuracy, take-out and modification

We rely on you to ensure that your personal information is complete, accurate and current. Please inform us promptly of any changes to, or inaccuracies of, your personal information us via email. You can ask us for a copy of the personal information we hold about you at any time by. You can also inform us of any changes to your personal information, or if you want us to correct the personal information we hold about you.

Revoke Consent / Opting-out of services / Data deletion

You can revoke consent and stop all automatic collecting of data by the App by uninstalling the App from your iOS device. A request for deletion of personal information collected by the App is not necessary in the EEA territory, as the App does not collect any personal information at all in the EEA territory, only non-personalized data.

You can revoke consent and request deletion of all personal information we received from you, e.g. via email or social media. Please add all necessary information we need to identify your person, e.g. email address and social media account. Please note that we will not be able to give you any support or service when you have explicitly opted-out, until you explicitly opt-in again by writing an email to Us.

Changes

We may modify or update this privacy policy when necessary to reflect customer feedback and changes in the App. Please review it regularly. When we update this policy, we will revise the 'Last Update' date at the top of the policy. We encourage you to regularly review this policy to learn more about how we are using and protecting your information. If you do not comply with the latest privacy policy, please delete the app from all of your devices and stop using our services as described.
